Printers of Fine Programs

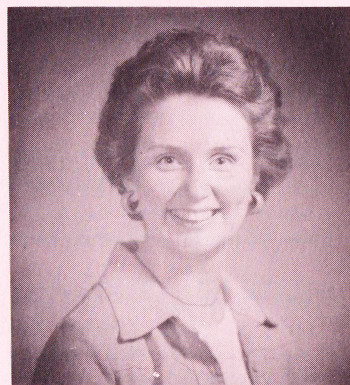

A superb, masterful, and inspiring director, Donald E. Sisson brings to Actorsingers his experience in both amateur and professional groups. His professional credits stem from his association with the Chateau de Ville, New London Barn Playhouse, and Hackmatack Playhouse. He has directed "Flower Drum Song," "Sweet Charity," "Pajama Game," "Funny Girl," "Carnival," "Marigolds," "Miss Reardon Drinks A Little," and appeared on stage in roles in "Solid Gold Cadillac," "Damn Yankees," "1766," and as Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof." We hope "The King and I" will be the first of many shows in which Mr. Sisson will be associated with Actorsingers.

Adrih P. Provencher

Music Director

Having actually directed a production of "The King and I" previously, the effervescent Adrih has also directed "Calamity Jane," "Wizard of Oz," and "The Boyfriend." She has a Bachelor and Master degree in Music Education and is currently head of the music department at the Greater Lowell Regional Vocational Technical School. Her experience as musical director includes "Funny Girl," "Carnival," and "Sound of Music," as well as giving memorable performances in the lead roles from "My Fair Lady," "Camelot," "Guys & Dolls," "Damn Yankees," "Miss Reardon Drinks A Little," and "Three Penny Opera."

PAULA JOHNSON CHOREOGRAPHER LAURIE HEATH ACCOMPANIST

Paula Johnson, our choreographer, has a Bachelor and Masters degree in dance and has studied in Europe, Chicago, and Indianapolis Civic Theater and the Indianapolis Ballet Theater. Paula has performed as a dancer in many musicals, including the demanding role of Anita in "Westside Story."

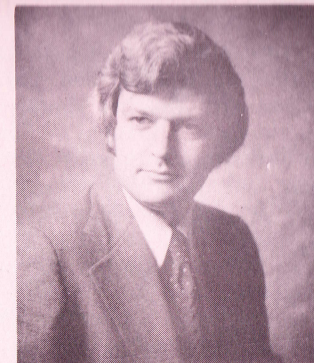

Laurie Heath, our accompanist, started playing piano at the age of five, and joined Actorsingers for the first time for our last show, "Man of La Mancha." She is a senior at Alvirne High and besides teaching piano, she plays for the Freedom Singers and youth choir at the Main Street Methodist Church.

Chuck Stein

The King

Chuck Stein's love for the theater is surpassed only by the energy which he devotes to each and every one of his roles. We also see something else common in every performance by him, that being that Chuck manages to thoroughly relax and enjoy his demanding roles on stage, somehow balancing an easygoing manner with a vigorous performance. In essence, he is one of those hard-to-find performers who "make it look easy." Actorsinger audiences will recognize him from his lead roles in "Music Man" and "Li'l Abner."

Michele Cacace

Anna

Having performed in numerous Actorsinger productions in the past such as "Kismet," "Li'l Abner," "Sound of Music," "Music Man," and "Carousel," you can always find the same steadfast dedication in Michele's contribution to the show. Whether it be her imaginative choreography in "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," or her role as a dancer in "Man of La Mancha," her boundless devotion is an asset. We are glad to see Michele once again join the cast and is certainly very prepared to portray the role of Anna. She has continued to study voice under the expertise of Mr. Joseph Pielecki and has studied ballet in New York.

Linda Marker Norman J. Chapdelaine

Lady Thiang Kralahome

Her role in "The King and I" is quite a change for the talented Linda Marker from her ingenue roles in the past. As Lady Thiang she proves how versatile a performer she really is. She has studied drama in New York City and her list of credits include "Fantastiks," "Music Man," "Fiddler On the Roof," "I Can Get it For You Wholesale," "Guys and Dolls," and "Bye Bye Birdie."

Norman J. Chapdelaine is a familiar face to Actor-singer audiences who will remember him from "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying," "My Fair Lady," "Music Man," and "Man of La Mancha." He also finds time to serve on the Board of St. Joseph's Hospital and the Boys Club.

Gisele La France
William Nelson

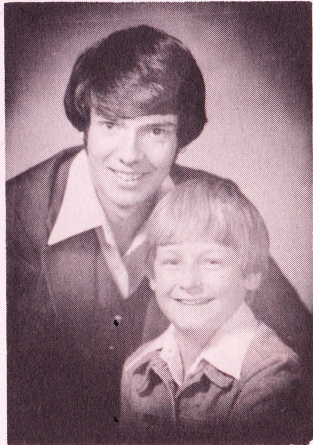

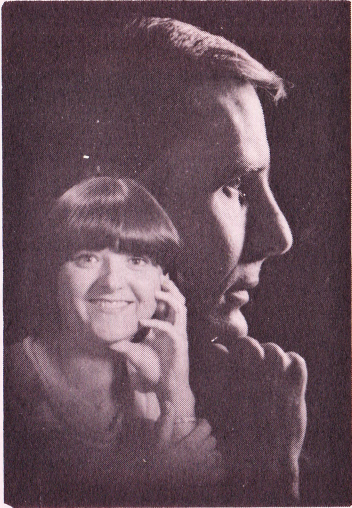

A vivacious talent, Gisele LaFrance has portrayed both Julie Jordan and Carrie in productions of "Carousel." She has appeared in Actorsingers' productions of "Oklahoma," "Sound of Music," "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," "My Fair Lady," "Fiddler on the Roof," and "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown."

William Nelson is a versatile performer who was cast in a triple role in "Man of La Mancha" last fall. At Graham Junior College, where he majored in radio and TV broadcasting and production, he directed TV variety, news, and drama shows. In the late 50's and early 60's, Bill performed in the New York area after starting his own rock & roll group.

Scott Benjaminson (L)
David B. Wood (R)

Scott Benjaminson is a 5th grade student at New Searles School and a member of the Junior Actorsingers, who already has a list of roles to his credit. His roles from the Junior Actorsingers include performances from "Snow White," "Pinocchio," and "Wizard of Oz." He also appeared in "Music Man" and "Carousel" with Actorsingers.

David B. Wood is a sophomore at Nashua High School and is a former member of the "I Like the U. S. of A." performers where he portrayed the Prince in "Cinderella." Since David admits his hobby is "anything relating to the theater," we trust he will appear on our stage for many years to come.

BUILDING FUND DRIVE PROGRESS REPORT

Actorsingers gratefully acknowledges the following contributors to our Building Fund Drive as of the present date. Our sincere thanks to you all for your generous support. Pledges are still being made and we hope to add many more names to this list of supporters in our Fund Drive to acquire and pay off the mortgage on our new home on Lake Street. "King and I" is our first production, from our new facility and we trust it is worthy of your confidence in Actorsingers to provide fine musical theatre to Nashua for many years to come.
