Adrith SissonDramatics Director

We are delighted to have Adrith in the director's chair bringing her diverse theatrical background to the latest Actorsingers production. Adrith has appeared on stage for Lowell University, the Seton Guild, Arlington Friends of Drama and the Hackmatack Summer Theater and Playhouse. Her directing experience includes "The King and I," "Camelot" and "1776" for the Actorsingers as well as "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Carnival" and "The Sound of Music" to name only a few of those directed for other groups. Adrith holds a B.A. and a Masters in Music Education and is the Head of the Department of Performing Arts at the Greater Lowell Regional Vocational Technical High School.

Robert Narkunas*Music Director

Bob brings to "Damn Yankees" the experience gained from participating in many musical productions in many capacities. Now on the Board of Directors, Bob has been a member of the Actorsingers for many years appearing as accompanist for "Kismet," "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," "Carousel" and for many special shows. He was the accompanist for the New Boston Players production of "South Pacific" and the conductor-pianist for the Palace Theater performance of that production. Bob recently completed the musical direction of the Communicate Show for the American Field Service Committee. He is presently Vice President of Operations for the Nashua Symphony Association and pianist for the Nashua Symphony Orchestra.

Gay Nardone*Choreographer

A newcomer to Actorsingers, Gay brings talent and experience that we hope will be available to us for a long time. Gay has a B.F.A. from the Boston Conservatory of Music and has had training in jazz, tap, modern dance and ballet. She was a member of the June Taylor Dancers and a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall. Gay has appeared as a dancer and singer in musical revues and in dinner theater. She is currently the director of The Dancing Corner studio in Nashua.

Lorraine Graham*Meg

A life member of the Actorsingers, Lorraine has been involved with many aspects of production on both sides of the footlights. She directed "1776," "Guys and Dolls," "Sound of Music" and "Music Man" for the Actorsingers and appeared in their productions of "Little Mary Sunshine," "Hello Dolly" and "Oklahoma." Lorraine has also directed for the Anselmian Summer Theater and for Nashua High School. She is a past president of the Actorsingers and is a member of the Actorsingers Chorus.

John Florio*Joe Boyd

A ten-year member of the Actorsingers, John has been on stage in "Kismet" and "Carousel" and has worked in various production capacities. John recently appeared in Paramount Pictures' "Defection of Simas Kudirka" as Mr. Fuller. He also played Baptistan in Feydeau's "Flea in Her Ear" for the American Stage Festival. He is currently appearing in a commercial for TV 38. John has participated in workshops in stage movement and directing, and enjoys golf, skiing and flying when not involved in theatricals.

Sid BashaJoe Hardy

As Joe Hardy, Sid will be certain to delight Nashua audiences as he has done in the past in the roles of Lancelot in "Camelot" and Richard Henry Lee in "1776." Sid's fine voice has been well appreciated in many area churches as it is in the Actorsingers Chorus where Sid is a soloist as well as a chorus member. Sid gained dramatic experience with the Marlboro Playwright Theater and with Andy's Summer Playhouse. He has also appeared in variety shows in Manchester and Temple.

Ruth Cyanovich*Pianist

Ruth majored in music therapy at Ohio University. She now teaches at Hudson Memorial School where she helps with school musicals and also teaches guitar. Ruth has been singing with and accompanying the Actorsingers Chorus. We welcome Ruth to her first Actorsingers' show and hope she will be around for many more.

Marguerite Daniels

After much too long an absence from the Actorsingers, we are delighted to present Marguerite in a role so well suited to her singing, dancing and acting talents. She has appeared in the choruses of many shows including "Carousel," "Mame" and "Hello Dolly," last appearing in the role of Daisy Mae in "L'il Abner." Marguerite is a part-time performer with the band "Calico" and has performed in the past with the Christopher Singers.

LolaStan Polan*Applegate

In his five shows' worth of experience with the Actorsingers, Stan has been working his way up (or down if you prefer) to the ambitious role of Applegate, the debonair devil of "Damn Yankees." Stan started with minor parts in "Man of La Mancha" and "The King and I," moving on to the roles of Merlyn in "Camelot" and a gangster in "Kiss Me Kate." Stan is presently serving as Treasurer on the Actorsingers Board of Directors.

Robin MacDonald*Gloria

Most recently seen as Abigail Adams in "1776," Robin has also appeared with the Actorsingers in "The King and I" and "Camelot." She spent two years in summer stock at the Barn Theater in Okemos, Michigan. Robin was a soloist with "I Like the U. S. of A.," performing at the Miss New Hampshire Pageant and the Jr. Miss of New Hampshire Pageant, 1978. She is presently alternate soloist at First Church of Christ Scientist, Nashua and Milford.

Donald E. Sisson*Van Buren

An accomplished actor and director, Don adds the role of Van Buren to his previous successes. Don appeared as Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof" for the Greater Lowell Theater Company and for the Hackmatack Playhouse in Maine. He was also seen as Pellinore in the Actorsingers' "Camelot" and as Stephen Hopkins and John Dickinson in two different productions of "1776." Don's directing credits include "The King and I" for the Actorsingers as well as "Flower Drum Song," "The Pajama Game" and "Auntie Mame" for other groups.

THE ACTORSINGERS

The present organization of Actorsingers made its debut as a performing group in January 1955, when its members presented "The Bohemian Girl" by Balfe. Since that time they have performed on an average of twice a year, demonstrating their versatility by running the scale from Gilbert & Sullivan to nostalgic Victor Herbert and Strauss shows, from modern Menotti works to Besoyan's "Little Mary Sunshine." In response to popular request, they went on to "big time" musicals including "Camelot," "1776" and "Kiss Me, Kate."

Since 1955, the Actorsingers have offered to the citizens of Nashua and surrounding communities good entertainment of a musical-dramatic nature. Its ever-swelling membership has an opportunity to express and develop individual talents in stage performance, costume designing, set construction, choreography, make-up and many attendant technical skills so vital to a show's success.

The name "Actorsingers" was adopted as most descriptive of the double challenge of bringing to Nashua productions requiring good musicianship and acting.

The group is a non-profit, non-denominational organization incorporated in June, 1961, and is governed by a set of by-laws and its Executive Board which meets once a month.

The Junior Actorsingers, an off-spring of the parent group, is made up of children of the Actorsingers and patrons. These youngsters, in grades 3 through 8, perform in an operetta in the springtime of each year.

If you are interested in becoming an Actorsinger, further information and an application for membership may be obtained from:
