Companies that maintain good relationships with their communities have long recognized a simple fact: providing jobs is not enough.

Since Digital has been part of New Hampshire, we've tried to do more than give people a good working environment. By energetically supporting a broad range of educational, cultural and human services activities, we hope to help make the state's superb quality of life even better.

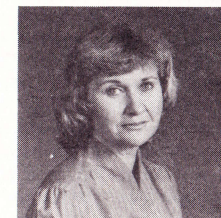

A company's ability to grow and prosper depends upon the well-being of its employees and their communities. And for Digital in New Hampshire, that's a statewide commitment.

Carolyn Schroeder ..... DRAMATICS DIRECTOR

Carolyn began her work in theatre at Occidental College in California, earning her degree in Speech and Drama. She has studied acting in New York with Lee Strasberg, musical comedy with Charles Nelson Reilly, dance with Matt Mattox and singing with John Daggett Howell. She has appeared in "The Fantastiks," "The Music Man," and numerous TV commercials and theatrical productions while in New York. She left professional theatre to raise two daughters with her husband in New Hampshire. She has directed and performed in community theatre and with the Hooksett Entertainers on a tour of Germany. Currently she sings with and is vice president of the Manchester Chorale Society. This is the first time (hopefully not the last!) that Carolyn has worked with us, and it has been a delight. WELCOME, Carolyn.

Jarred Holland ..... MUSICAL DIRECTOR

This is the first time that we feature "Jed" as our musical director, but not the first time as a member of our productions. He has been the accompanist for our productions of "Gypsy" and the Junior Actorsinger production of "Snow White." He was also seen onstage in the New Hampshire Stage Company's productions of "HMS Pinafore" and "The Mikado." Jed recently graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute with a degree in Computer Science. While in college, he was the musical director for productions of "Guys & Dolls" and "Sweeney Todd." The Actorsingers hope that Jed will continue to share his talent with us in future productions.

Ronnie LePetri ..... CHOREOGRAPHER

Ronnie owes her start in dancing to her teacher, Alice MacAllister of Hudson. She performed in a Bicentennial Show in 1976 and hasn't stopped since. She has choreographed shows for the Tyngsboro Junior and Senior High Schools, the Merrimack Valley Chorale, and the Dunstable Chorale Society. Her dance background is in tap, ballet, and jazz and she currently runs a studio in her home. We hope that she has enjoyed her first Actorsinger show and that she will join us again very soon.

Lawrence A. Emmons ..... STAGE MANAGER

Larry first joined the Actorsingers in 1983 with our production of "Funny Girl" and has been a die-hard techie ever since. He has worked behind the scenes in "The Wiz," "Oliver," "Guys & Dolls," and "South Pacific." With a college background in engineering and as owner of two local health studios, combined with his on-the-job training with our shows, he seemed an ideal candidate for this challenging position. GOOD LUCK, Larry and BREAK A LEG!!

Laurie Chadborne Nowicki ..... SET DESIGNER

Actorsinger Hall has become a home-away-from-home for Laurie. She is one of those people who put 150% of herself into a project. This will be evident when the curtain opens and you witness her creativity in the sets for this show. Laurie joined us in last year's production of "Hello, Dolly" and her artistry has colored our shows ever since. It broke all of our hearts to watch her paint over the Emerald City back-drop that she had designed and painted for "The Wiz." But she covered it with yet another masterpiece. So glad you found us, Laurie!

George Bourbeau ..... PRODUCTION MANAGER

With the job of production manager winding down to a close, George can now say that he has done just about everything there is to do with community theatre. He has designed such shows for us as "Funny Girl," "Gypsy," and "Damn Yankees," and has worked on hair, lighting, auditioning, play-reading, and crew committees with us. He has also designed shows for the Nashua Theatre Guild and assisted and co-directed Nashua Senior High School Plays. The list goes on and on. Once this production is over, George looks forward to going home, putting his feet up, and doing absolutely nothing! Until of course, the next project comes along.....

Lisa Boucher ..... ANNIE

This is Lisa's first Actorsinger production, and she has been an asset to the show with her enthusiasm and energy. She is a sixth grade student at the Amherst Middle School and her hobbies include soccer, water and snow skiing, and of course, theatre. She has performed in various shows with the Peacock Players, did a commercial for Eagle Advertising, and recently performed at Andy's Playhouse. Lisa has studied acting and singing with the Peacock Players and at the Cameo Workshop for TV and Modeling. Lisa hopes to someday be a professional actress - we hope that "Tomorrow" her wish will come true.

Gene Bombara ..... WARBUCKS

Gene is once again letting his talent shine on the Actorsinger stage. He has appeared as Nick Arnstein in "Funny Girl," Max Deitweiler in "The Sound of Music," and Cornelius Hackl in "Hello, Dolly." He has graced several other stages in a variety of roles such as R. P. Murphy in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and Cliff Bradshaw in "Cabaret." Last Fall, he appeared with the Nashua Theatre Guild production of "Bedroom Farce," followed by "Uncivil Wars" at the Palace Theatre. Gene is an active AFTRA member and an awful lot of fun to have in any production.

Lisa G. Clark ..... GRACE FARRELL

Lisa's performance in "Annie" marks her fourth consecutive Actorsinger production. She appeared as Irene Molloy in "Hello, Dolly," in the chorus of "Oliver," and most recently as the unforgettable Evillene in "The Wiz." In addition to community theatre, she has semi-professional experience as well, having portrayed Nellie Forbush in "South Pacific" and Frauline Kost in "Cabaret." She is currently serving as corresponding secretary on our Board of Directors.

Linda Finkle ..... MISS HANNIGAN

Linda is a newcomer to the Actorsingers and really gets to show off her talent in this role. She has performed at the Public Theatre in Boston as Caliban in "The Tempest" and Herodias in "Salome." She has performed at the Summer Loeb Theatre at Harvard and also as the Kid in "Roar of the Grease Paint.." and the Prisoner in "Canterbury Tales" in Florida. Linda is an enthusiastic and hard-working member of this cast and it is a pleasure to welcome her to the Actorsinger spot-light.

Alyssa Yonkin ..... TESSIE AND ANNIE'S UNDERSTUDY

This is Alyssa's first show with the Actorsingers. She attends fourth grade at Thornton's Ferry School and her hobbies include singing and performing in plays. Alyssa is currently taking acting lessons with the Peacock Players and would like to be a professional actress. Good Luck, Alyssa!

Lise Duhamel ..... PRODUCTION MANAGER

This is Lise's second time as production manager for the Actorsingers, the first being "Guys & Dolls." She has also worked in many other capacities for us, for example she has done make-up, set work, and concessions, and has worked on many of our Junior Actorsinger shows. Lise has had a love for theatre since she was in highschool, and a love you must have to take on this monumental job. Thanks for all the hard work!

The Actorsingers Chorus

The Actorsingers Chorus, a mixed chorus of some of our finest solo voices, offers a variety of musical programs of ½ hour to 1 hour in length for various clubs, conventions, service and business organizations. These shows are performed on request and consist of musical numbers to suit everyone's taste - showtunes, spirituals, traditional and "Oldies but goodies." Why not treat yourselves and your group to a musical extravaganza? Donations for these programs go toward reducing the mortgage on our home at 219 Lake Street. For further information on booking a special show for your group please contact: Kerry Schneider, 888-2837 or if you enjoy singing and having a fun time PLEASE join our chorus each Monday at 7:30. For information concerning rehearsals call Ann Mitchell, 465-7969.
