Actorsingers' 2009-2010 season is dedicated to the memory of

Mrs. Margaret ("Penny") Tamulonis

Active Member of Actorsingers for Over Half a Century
Seamstress and Costumer Extraordinaire
Life Member and Past President
Actress • Singer • Organizer
Faithful Friend

In 1978 the Actorsingers recognized Penny Tamulonis for being not only a long-time supporter — over twenty years at that time — but a hard worker who served the group "above and beyond the call of duty." Thus was born the Penny Award, an honor that continues to be bestowed today on those rare individuals who follow in Penny's footsteps by demonstrating the highest level of commitment to the organization.

What might not have been foreseen in 1978 is that Penny was not yet halfway through her devoted service. She helped for thirty years more, sometimes on stage but mostly behind the scenes, inspiring new generations of members and making it possible for the Actorsingers to grow into the organization it is today.

Penny was a dear friend and we miss her tremendously.

From the Helm; Ships Log: November 2009

Just as it takes a village to raise a child, it takes an entire crew to launch a ship and I have been blessed with an amazing crew for this journey. The moment Martha and Jed first suggested we travel together on this cruise, I knew, with them at the helm beside me, it was destined to be a stellar journey. With Beth (Producer) as the Executive Director of the cruise line and Steve (AD/SM) as First Mate, I knew I had the perfect line of officers to ensure smooth sailing. Knowing our Chief Engineer John (Set Designer) would ensure a stage-worthy vessel; I knew it was sure to be the perfect journey.

Our officer's roster also included some of most talented artists and designers, who worked tirelessly to ensure the perfect atmosphere for all our passengers. Beautiful lighting, smooth sounds, and the finest of nautical appointments were prepared with great care throughout the ship. Even the local fashion designers turned out in full to ensure all our guests travelled in style.

A highly dedicated crew tended to the many tasks necessary to prepare us for our journey. From the business of ticket and souvenir sales to the management of sailing schedules and shipboard communication, everyone was dedicated to ensuring the best of the best for passengers and crew of the SS American.

Finally, our elite sailing staff is ready to greet the most delightful (and talented!) passenger roster to ever set sail from the Elm Street Port. With that, Harbor Master Dennis (TD) is ready to instruct our hardworking longshoremen to cast off the lines and set this great ship in motion.

Thank you for choosing to sail with The Actorsingers Cruise Line aboard our famous SS American. We hope you enjoy the journey as much as we enjoyed preparing it for you. Welcome aboard and BON VOYAGE!

The Cast

Amy Agostino (Passenger) - Amy is delighted to be making her first appearance with Actorsingers, especially after a two year hiatus from the stage. Favorite past roles include Mrs. Paroo in Music Man, Sister Margaretta in Sound of Music, and Glinda/Aunt Em in Wizard of Oz. Many thanks to the Anything Goes staff & crew, my family and friends - and my work "girls" for covering all those rehearsal nights for me!

Catherine Andruskevich (Passenger) - CZA portrayed Hope Harcourt (and even tapped!) in our 1989 production of Anything Goes and says that being in the current ensemble has afforded her the luxury of an ab-fab trip down memory lane (miss you, Moe). She last appeared as Hold Me Touch Me in our recent production of The Producers. Next spring will mark her 40th (!) anniversary with Actorsingers (she said she joined as a baby!).

Cheri Birch (Charity) - Cheri most recently appeared in the Actorsingers' award winning production of Check, Please, at the NHCTA Festival. You may not have recognized her in The Producers last spring, where she was disguised as butch lesbian Shirley Markowicz, the ugly show girl, and a tap dancing storm trooper. Thanks to the Angels for laughter, D.M.J and the entire cast and crew for the voyage.

Michele Bossie (Passenger) - This show marks Michele's 12th year with AS. She is very happy to be back with old friends and making new ones. Michele has done theater projects both on and off stage thru out NH. Some "favs" are Annie in Annie Get Your Gun, Rose in The Secret Garden, Sister Mary Amnesia in Nunsense and Hildy in On the Town with AS. Thanks to all the directors for the great time and to hubby Jon, Luv U

Ronald C. Bourque (Billy) - If you're sitting down reading this, THANK YOU for supporting local community theater! If it wasn't for you we would not be here! A big thank you to Dana, Martha & Jed for all of your patience and support. Lastly, and most of all I would like to thank Armand, and all of my family, relatives and friends for continuing to attend and support one of my passions. XO2WAYLAND&BETH-TX!8D LV2KP

Leo Choquette (Props Co-chair) – This is Leo's 2nd AS show organizing props. His first was The Producers this spring; he had so much fun he's back for more. He would like to thank Dana for the opportunity to be part of this great production. Thanks to the cast and crew for a job well done. Once again Leo would like to thank his family, friends and partner Steve for their love and support. Welcome aboard and enjoy the show.

Gretchen Gray (Props Co-chair) – Gretchen has been involved with over a dozen shows with Actorsingers including serving the best school lunch around in FAME, making a giant caviar container for CATS, as a graffiti artist for Godspell, dressed Eva Peron's corpse for Evita and created a feast for Belle and Beast. Her basement is filled with an odd assortment of props and set pieces and trips to thrift shops and recycling centers are part of her regular routine. Welcome aboard!!!

Beth Fenske (Producer) - Beth has been an Actorsinger since 1991. She is also President of the "Dana Bissett Siegal Fan Club". So when Dana decided to team up with her dear friends Steve, Martha and Jed, she HAD to be "on board". Having such an incredibly talented director team, production team, and cast was indeed a blessing for this rookie. Special thanks to Kerry Schneider and Silvia Harper for all their help and advice, to her friends at the New Thalian Players and Concord Community Players for their support, and especially thanks to Kimbell, the coolest guy in the world. "To err is human, to really screw-up must mean you're Producing for Community Theater" ;^))

Steve Pierpont (Stage Manager/ Asst Director) - Steve would like to thank Dana for the opportunity to be part of this amazing creative process, to share her vision and take this journey with all of you. Thanks to cast and crew for all of your hard work, we've shared many laughs through rehearsals. Steve would also like to thank his family, friends and partner Leo for their love and support. Bon voyage, let's misbehave as we sail. Yea-Bo!

Dennis Schneider (Technical Director) - Dennis is a Life Member of Actorsingers. Anything Goes is his 50th mainstage production as a designer or director. Backstages and show tech have been a part of Dennis' life since discovering his wife (and actress) Kerry is afraid of heights - so he did her college lighting labs. Dennis is also chairman of the City of Nashua's Auditorium Commission which oversees the Keefe Auditorium.

Kathleen Meehan Goreham (Chastity) - This one is for my Dad who became an "Angel" on April 7th, 2009. Being a sailor and a lover of the music from this era I think this would be right up his alley. Hope I can do you proud Daddy. Love you and miss you.

CREW LEADS

Dana (Bissett) Siegal (Director) - Dana is delighted to be returning to AS and working with this dream team and talented cast! She made her AS debut as the director of our award winning 42 Street, and last year returned to stage manage another AS winner, Thoroughly Modern Millie. Hailing from south of the boarder, Dana has been directing 2-3 major production a year for nearly 20 years in addition to numerous cabaret and fund raising events. While she says her current show is always her favorite, she does have some memorable highlights, including, Aida, IC Superstar, Working, Once on this Island, City of Angels, 42nd Street, Godspell, and David The Musical. Anything Goes will join that list for its incredible talent on and off stage, the endless laughs along the journey, and the unique opportunity to reunite with and direct a long lost nephew. (Yea-Bo!). However, she notes her most memorable production of all was last October when she was cast in the life long role of Mrs. Ed Siegal (AML Evie!). She sends love and hugs to all those who give her life roots and her vision wings!

Martha Daniels Holland (Choreographer) - This has been a dream to work alongside her husband Jed and dear friend Dana. Martha was blessed to work with Dana in A/S 42nd Street in 2005. She credits the cast on having great patience while she continued to "enhance" the dances until the very end. Special thanks go out to Kath G, Jerry, Dan, Mike R, Jen S, Elyse and particularly Val, whose 'magical tapping feet' have been a driving force for this show. She dedicates this show to her five beautiful children whose extreme patience throughout this process has proven invaluable. Now that the show is over, she can concentrate her energies as a Realtor with Century 21 Cardinal and hopefully help support her family. She thanks everyone involved in this great production and for everyone seeing it and sharing this journey with us. Lots of love to Mom and Sis. For Penny, John & Betty, Moe and Nancy O.

Jared Holland (Music Director/Band Leader) - Jed's directed music for several Actorsingers shows, most lately in 2000; he's played in the orchestra, appeared on stage, or worked backstage for many others since 1981, and he runs our website. Jed first met wife Martha in the group. Thanks to current and former Actorsingers who have perpetuated and distinguished the organization. Love to M, A, R, M, M, C.

Have a Great Show!
