DIRECTOR'S NOTES

"I love people who make me laugh. I honestly think it's the thing I like most, to laugh. It cures a multitude of ills. It's probably the most important thing in a person." – Audrey Hepburn

To my cast, I just adore this quote by Audrey Hepburn, and I absolutely love each and every one of you! By the time our audiences see our production, we'll have been in rehearsals together for 12 weeks and you've made me laugh from day one. From tech week all the way back to our first rehearsal, and even to auditions before that, you've had me laughing the entire time – and I know when the jokes are coming and what the punchlines are!

To our audience, as you may or may not know, reading a funny script out loud is easy but doing comedy well is difficult. There's a very fine line between trying too hard to get a laugh and not having enough "edge" in how you deliver your line to make it funny, or not having the timing right to get the laugh. There's plenty of times when pausing for a fraction of a second makes all the difference between a huge laugh and the "lonely sound of the wind in the trees, an owl, or maybe a cricket."

The wonderful, magical aspect of comedy, when done well, is that no matter what level of foul mood one may be in, it really is hard to stay that way after you've been laughing, and as Ms. Hepburn said, "it cures a multitude of ills." So sit back and let Dr. Frankenstein, Igor, and the rest of the wacky characters in Young Frankenstein draw you into a very happy place for a few hours. Thank you for your patronage and support, and we hope that you have at least one very honest, true, guttural "Super Duper" laugh tonight!

In MA she has performed & choreographed with Andover Theatre Colonial Chorus, Paint & Powder & Winton Club; and in NH with StageCoach Productions & Actorsingers. She raised 4 children & has 2 granddaughters. Her favorite role is as Ben's wife in the Ben & Alice Show in which she is the Star... a 57-year run. Ben, you will always be my leading man Happy Anniversary.

Ben Pascucci (Mordecai) Ben started in 1960's Minstrel shows as an End Man. In variety shows he did musical comedy scenes. Early 1980's cast in FORUM began his passion for theatre which he shares with his wife Alice. They've done 1 or 2 shows every season since and now in Frankenstein they celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary on stage Nov 9. The future ..... Que SERA SERA

Jen Sassak (Dance Captain/Decker) Favorite past roles include: Lucy in You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, Lulu/The Gorilla in Cabaret, and Anita in West Side Story, among others. Paul Metzger (Director), who occasionally goes by the alias "Heisenberg", is extremely proud to be directing this show. All aspects of it -- actors, music, choreography, sets, costumes, lighting -- everything came together to make this production something very, very special. Directorial credits include Guys & Dolls, Sweet Charity, Thoroughly Modern Millie, CATS, and Jesus Christ Superstar (all with The Actorsingers) along with Dirty Rotten Scoundrels (Stagecoach Productions). No stranger to performing on stage, Paul has appeared in numerous productions, most recently reprising the role of Ernst Ludwig in Majestic's Cabaret as well as the role of Concorde, the squire, in Community Players of Concord's production of Spamalot ("Message for you, Sir!"). Paul would like to thank the entire cast, the production team, and tech crew for all of their hard work and creativity for putting on such an incredible show! He'd also like to send out a special "thank you" to his family for their support and a special heartfelt "Bravo!" to his wife, Donna -- friend, love, choreographer extraordinaire and multi-talented triple-threat herself. Congratulations on another amazing adventure together!

Donna O'Bryant Metzger (Choreographer) Donna is thrilled to have the opportunity to choreograph the NH premiere of Young Frankenstein! Donna is a NH Theatre Award-winning choreographer for two Actorsingers productions, Cats and Thoroughly Modern Millie. This year she also choreographed a NH production of Cabaret. Donna has choreographed and performed in several shows throughout NH and MA over the years. She is the most recent past President of the Actorsingers and is a member of the Nashua Arts Commission. She'd like to thank Judy Hayward for being an all-around talented collaborator; Paul Metzger for his vision, sense of humor, and support; Jen Sassak for being her "right arm and left leg"; her family for their continuous love and support; and this wonderfully-talented, crazy, and fun cast for making it all look so fantastic! Love you all...

Judy Hayward (Music Director) Judy holds a BFA in Piano Performance from Louisiana Tech University and a Master's degree from the University of Oregon in Arts Administration, and is one of the founders of StageCoach Productions and the StageCoach Women's Chorus. With over 200 shows to her credit, she has music directed for numerous theatres, both professional and community, from coast to coast. Since moving to NH, Judy has been music director for productions with Peacock Players, Actorsingers, Stoneham Theatre (MA), Winnepesaukee Playhouse, and StageCoach Productions. Judy has been the recipient of the New Hampshire Theatre Award for Best Music Director numerous times.

Brian Mehlman (Co-producer) Brian is an Actorsingers life member and enjoys being onstage and working behind the scenes. He has been onstage in Fiddler on the Roof, Follies, In the Spotlight, Brigadoon, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Anything Goes. Behind the scenes, he's worn many hats since joining the Actorsingers in 1994. Brian would like to thank the entire YF team for putting on such an amazing show.

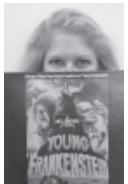

Daryl O'Bryant (Co-producer) After having been on the periphery of Actorsingers & NH Theatre for 2 years, Daryl decided to dive in head-first to co-produce this iconic show. He loves the cast. Daryl would like to thank Brian Mehlman and the Young Frankenstein Production Team for all of their hard work. Likewise, he is grateful to this 4 beautiful children and family for their love and support.

Steven Harper (Stage Manager) This is Steven's 52nd Actorsingers show. He began his stage and screen career by directing The African Queen and is credited for launching the career of Humphrey Bogart. During a hiatus from the stage, he served as Ambassador to Elbonia under Eisenhower. He then returned to Broadway, where he originated the role of Mame in Mame, for which he won a Tony. When not working in theatre, he manages a llama farm in Hollis and is anticipating the release of his 9th book, Legs & Eggs: 101 Great Ostrich Recipes.

Dennis Schneider (Technical Director) Dennis is proud to have been part of our Tech Team since 1984 - this is his 54th Actorsingers main stage production. Dennis is a 7-time recipient of New Hampshire Theatre Awards for lighting and set design. His work was most recently seen in our productions of Les Miserables, Chicago, Annie, Cats, 42nd Street, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Ragtime. Dennis also chairs the City of Nashua's Auditorium Commission. Dennis owes his involvement in theatre technology to his wife Kerry and her acting career - working backstage provides a great way to spend time with her!

Gretchen Gray (Props Mistress) Gretchen has been a fan of Young Frankenstein since she saw the movie in junior high school. She still has the vinyl record of the soundtrack that she bought at the time. Helping this show come to life on stage has been a blast. Prior to this, Gretchen has been involved as properties manager for oodles and oodles of shows with Actorsingers, StageCoach Productions, Peacock Players, and others. Her basement is filled with an odd assortment of props and set pieces and trips to thrift shops and recycling centers are part of her regular routine. For this show, she had to create a crop of jello brains, a skill which will come in handy in the future for Halloween parties. Remember, it's pronounced "Fronkensteen."

Lindsay Vago (Costumer) This is Lindsay's second endeavor into costumes. A show with farce is not complete without a few trees, zombies, an over-sized monster, and a dirndl dress. The task of costumer is never accomplished without some amazing assistants; and the ability to immerse herself in the costume shop at the hall isn't possible without an amazing husband and understanding children. Thank you, Joe Vago!

Rick Brooks (Lighting Design) Rick is a professional, award-winning lighting designer based out of Southern New Hampshire. Specializing in lighting design for theatre, concerts, weddings, and corporate events, Rick travels around New England producing high-quality, professional designs. Working with a group of professional, highly-qualified designers, Rick's company - Thunder & Lightning Productions - can produce lighting, sound, and set designs quickly and efficiently for any group or venue, large or small.

Craig Brennan (Lighting Design) Craig is pleased to return to Actorsingers for Young Frankenstein, having previously lit Music Man, Les Miserables, Curtains, Annie, Aida, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Seussical, Cats, Oklahoma and others. Craig has been extensively involved in lighting for local theater groups, including Stagecoach Productions and Ghostlight Theater, and professionally at Yellow Taxi Productions, American Stage Festival, Lyric Stage Company and Publick Theatre in Boston, and Pirate Stage Company in New York. Craig has received the NH Theatre Award for lighting design 3 times (in 2003, '08, and '13).

Michael O'Keefe (Sound Design) In his 13th year with AS, Mike has been a part of the technical crew for all of the mainstage shows and many of the junior and teen shows during that time. Most often you will find him behind the sound board. Mike also lends his technical skills to the Hudson Middle School and High School drama clubs.
