Director's Notes

Crazy for You is a show about showbiz - and those of us who love the glow of the footlights and the joy of live applause. In 1996 I was fortunate to be part of an amazing Actorsingers production of Crazy for You, choreographed and directed by the extraordinary team of Bobby Fonacier, Betty Thomson and Gary Locke. I was so inspired by their work that it left a lasting impression on me, and I am delighted to be revisiting that magical show in my A/S main stage directorial debut.

Moving from Follies Girl to Director has been filled with amazing experiences over these past (nearly) 20 years, and I am grateful that A/S chose me to lead this wonderful production. I have enjoyed revisiting memories of the 1996 production (you may even recognize some of the dance steps and direction I included to honor that gifted directorial team!), but have loved building this wonderful new production as well, and I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge the numerous people who have moved this show into the spectacular event that it has become.

Judy, Dana and Steve were so supportive from day one at our interview with the Actorsingers Board. Their invaluable support, encouragement, advice, guidance and wisdom has truly been the driving force of this production. John McAllister's knowledge with sets and the tech side has been instrumental in helping me design, with him, the best set design I could have imagined. Kathy Lovering's willingness to jump in and handle many aspects of this show, along with producing, is so appreciated. My 'gal Friday' Cheryl has been such a phenomenal cheerleader and constant source of positive energy and support, no matter what I threw at her. Cherie's ingenuity and creativity and smile have brightened my day, and this show. I was so excited for Eric to take the helm for sound, and having Craig be our lighting 'God' was a blessing. There are countless, and I mean countless people who have put their heads, screwdrivers and energy together to bring this story to life. It has been an absolute pleasure working with this phenomenally talented cast. There have been some personal friends that have guided me through this entire process and for them, I am immensely grateful. Kathy squared, Jed and Lindsay, I can't thank you enough. To my wonderful children who are looking forward to home cooked meals again, Mom's back! Enjoy the show!

Production Team Biographies

Martha Daniels Holland (director / choreographer) This year marks 28 years Martha has been actively participating in Actiorsingers productions and with the organization. Her first show was The Music Man in 1987 and it made such an impact on her that she has been involved in nearly all of the productions, in one way or another, ever since. She met her husband Jed here during Music Man when he was playing piano and she was one of the dancers. This show marks her directorial debut for a mainstage show. She had the pleasure of being onstage for Crazy for You back in 1996 with this group and is delighted to have the ability to head the fantastic team for this one. She has choreographed a number of shows for the Junior and mainstage productions and has enjoyed re-creating some of the fabulous choreography that was produced in 1996. She has been blessed to be acknowledged by the NH Theater Awards for her choreography in previous productions. By day, she is a full-time Realtor with RE/MAX Properties and loves her work. Martha is extremely grateful to the Actiorsingers for giving her the opportunity to work on this production . Much love to Jed for his support throughout this process and for being onstage and taking her direction :) Endless love and appreciation to her children who haven't seen too much of her since February. Finally, she sends her love and thanks to family and friends who always show their support. It's truly appreciated! Enjoy the show!

Judy Hayward (Music Director) Judy holds a BFA in Piano Performance from Louisiana Tech University and a Master's degree from the University of Oregon in Arts Administration, and is one of the founders of StageCoach Productions and the StageCoach Women's Chorus. With at least 250 shows to her credit, she has music directed for professional and community theaters from coast to coast. Judy has been music director for productions with Peacock Players, Actiorsingers, Stoneham Theater (MA), Winnepesaukee Playhouse, and StageCoach Productions. Judy has been the recipient of the New Hampshire Theater Award for Best Music Director numerous times, including the Actiorsingers' productions of Thoroughly Modern Millie, Aida, and Les Mis.

Kathy Lovering (Producer) Kathy has been involved in local community theatre for the past 35 years, working with all ages from toddlers in church pageants to members of the Nashua Senior Center. Kathy is a life member of Actiorsingers where she has tried almost everything. She has directed Guy's & Dolls, Brigadoon, The Producers, the Music Man, Pirates of Penzance and On The Town. She has produced, stage managed, designed sets and performed in several shows. During the day, she works as an agent at Foy Insurance. 29 years ago, she met Bob Lovering in Actiorsingers who she eventually married (for his height, strength, and ability to back up a truck!) Their daughters Emily, an RN, and Madeline, a chef, were brought up in the Actiorsingers family. Kathy would like to send a huge thank you to all her friends who made this job a lot less challenging and lot more fun!

Steve Pierpont (Stage Manager) Steve is glad to be back working at Actiorsingers. He's proud of the great cast & hopes you enjoy the show. He thanks his friends & family for their support. A HUGE Thank You to Cheryl for her help & support!!

THE FIRST CHURCH (UCC) OF NASHUA, NEW HAMPSHIRE

is pleased to announce the restoration and tonal expansion of the 1926 Anderson Memorial Organ, Austin Organ Co., Opus 1406.

The project will return the organ to its original 1926 specification using existing and vintage pipework, while judiciously adding upper-work to each division in the style and voicing of the instrument's original era.

The three-manual instrument over six divisions will include a new floating Solo division, bringing the tonal resources of the organ to 60 ranks.

Austin Organs, Inc. of Hartford, Connecticut, and The First Church of Nashua, New Hampshire, are pleased to collaborate on this historic renovation project.

Completion is slated for fall 2015.

Soli Deo Gloria!

Jed Holland (Mingo) This is the first time in a long time we have seen Jed onstage and not in the pit. He has been musical director or accompanist for numerous Actorsingers shows. He’s having a lot of fun playing a cowboy alongside son Andrew. BRAVO to wife Martha on her directorial debut!

Joel Iwaskiewicz (Bobby Child) Joel is elated to appear in his fourth Actorsingers production. He is especially blessed to share the stage with his wife, Laura, the best tap tutor, scene partner, and friend he’s ever known. Offstage, Joel teaches high school English and directs musicals in Nashua. Endless thanks to his family, friends, and the tireless production team. Enjoy the show!

Laura Iwaskiewicz (Polly Baker) Laura is over the moon to be in this show! Laura was welcomed into the Actorsingers family with open arms in 2009. She is a music teacher at Pinkerton Academy and she treasures any opportunity she gets to perform and work with her husband, Joel. She would like to thank her family and friends for their support and the cast and crew for all their hard work!

Recent credits include All Shook Up (Stagecoach Productions), Peter Pan (Peacock Players), As You Like It (Nashua Theatre Guild), and Beauty and the Beast (Palace Theatre).

Kathy LeClair (Margie) Kathy is thrilled to play such a fun role of Follies Girl, Margie. Thanks to all the girls for extra rehearsing, each one of you is extremely special to her. Kathy is currently the president of Actorsingers and would like to thank everyone for supporting our organization.

Danielle Lepine (Follies entourage) After being away for 10 years, Danielle is excited to make her theatre comeback in this production. She is thrilled to share the stage with such talented genuine people! Previous Actorsingers credits include Fame & Godspell. Danielle is a makeup artist and is helping w/hair and makeup for this show. She dedicates this show to her father Ray for always pushing her to never waste her talent and to her mother Maria for always being her biggest fan!
