Directors Notes

The Oxford English Dictionary defines "appropriate" as that which is "suitable or proper". When you first heard about this show, I'm sure that the word "appropriate" did not instinctively come to mind. I don't blame you. A show boasting the title Urinetown: The Musical with featured songs like "It's a Privilege to Pee" and "Snuff that Girl" acted out by thirteen to nineteen year olds does not come off like a youth production of The Wizard of Oz. The show satirizes rather mature concepts such as over-consumption, greed, capitalism, political revolt, anarchism, cronyism, and brutality as an instrument of power. Furthermore, as Officer Lockstock will tell you, "everyone has to use public bathrooms in order to take care of their private business. That's the central conceit of the show!"

The book-writer, Greg Kotis, initially got the idea for this show while traveling abroad in Europe where many public restrooms require tolls for their usage. In what sense could this show possibly be construed as appropriate? Although we may not live in a community where unscrupulous tyrants have outlawed private bathrooms and taken control of our only means to relieve ourselves (unless you are a European tourist), we do live in a world where over-consumption and economic disparity commonly unite middle and lower class citizens against the wealthy few who seek to regulate the world's limited resources.

In late 2011, hundreds of protesters gathered daily on Wall Street in New York City to protest issues such as the growing disparity among economic classes and corporate greed. Though the movement was largely unsuccessful in solving the economic problems they so desperately sought to resolve, the "occupiers" certainly addressed them in a unique manner. When the directorial team decided on Urinetown, I latched on to the Occupy Movement as a filter for the cast to gaze through when weighing the relevance of the show's message. I hope that by dressing the cast in modern attire, constructing a set inspired by New York City, and blocking as well as choreographing the cast with the liveliness of a twenty-first century revolution, you as an audience can also discover the relevance of this show's message.

Bertolt Brecht once said, "A man who strains himself on the stage is bound, if he is any good, to strain all the people sitting in the stalls." This production was privileged enough to take on a bright and energetic cast with the ability to bring this piece of parodied epic theater to life. As teenagers, they are the agents of change for tomorrow. So why is Urinetown: The Musical, a show about the dangers of long term consequences related to our own society's future appropriate for a youth cast? I ask in return: which generation among us is the most appropriate to comment on the future consequences of today's actions, if not the future leaders themselves?

Meet the Cast

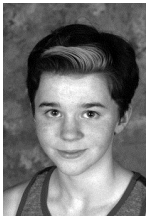

Jillian Anderson (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Jillian is thrilled to be performing in her first Actorsingers production! Jillian's favorite credits include A Chorus Line (Judy), Fiddler on the Roof (Hodel), and Honk! (Ida). Jillian would like to thank her friends and family for their support!

Allison Angellis (Cladwell's Secretary/UGC Executive) - Allison is thrilled to be in her 2nd Teen Actorsingers show. She has most recently been seen in NHSS's production of Singin' In The Rain (Tap Dancer), Beauty & the Beast (Belle) with MCC summer camps, and Honk! JR (Bullfrog) with JR Actorsingers. Enjoy the show!

Hannah Benson (Little Sally) - Hannah is tickled pink to play Lil' Sal in Urinetown. An incoming Junior, she likes to sleep in the summer, microwave her pants in the winter, and has been named a professional hugger, which she pursues year 'round. She hopes you love the show, and never take for granted the privilege to pee.

Ayden Carrier (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Ayden is really excited to do his first Teen Actorsingers show. He has been in many school productions in the past and one of his favorite roles is Property Rites (Robot Figure 11). He'd like to thank his mum for driving him all the way to Nashua for each rehearsal and putting up with his constant shower singing.

Braley Degenhardt (Hope Cladwell) - Braley is thrilled to be performing with Actorsingers, where she was last seen in Grease (Frenchy). She is a rising senior at Westford Academy. Past credits include Rumors (Cookie Cusack), Into the Woods (Stepmother), and Clean House (Lane). Enjoy the show!

Angela Demanche (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Angela is thrilled to be in her fifth Actorsingers show. Past roles include A Little Princess (Lottie) and Once on this Island (TiMoune). She is an Honors student at Fairgrounds Middle School. She would like to thank the cast and crew for making this show so much fun.

Meet the Crew Leads

Natasha Rodriguez (Co-Set Designer) - See Natasha's bio under "Meet the Cast"

Leo Choquette (Property Master) – Leo is excited to be doing props for another Actorsingers show. He would like to thank Catherine for the opportunity to be part of this production. Thanks to the cast and crew for a job well done. Leo's most recent props endeavors have been Come Back To The Five And Dime, Jimmy Dean Jimmy Dean, Five Woman Wearing The Same Dress (NTG) and CHICAGO, Guys And Dolls for Actorsingers. Once again Leo would like to thank his family and friends for their love and support. He hopes you enjoy the show.

Matthew Clarkson (Assistant Stage Manager) - Matthew is absolutely delighted for making his Actorsingers debut with assistant stage managing Urinetown: The Musical! Outside of Actorsingers, Matthew has been a jack-of-all-trades in theatre. Throughout his high school career, Matthew had been a stage manager, stage crew member, actor, director, and assistant to set design and construction. Previous shows include Frankenstein, Dracula, Perks of Being a Wallflower, Chemical Imbalance, Fiddler on the Roof, The Final Reel, and Shakespeare's As You Like It. Matthew would like to give special thanks to the entire direction team, Evelyn Decker, Nashua High School North Drama Club, River Song, the cast, and everyone at Actorsingers for all the help and support with his journey into Actorsingers. "You and me, time and space. You watch us run."

Mike Ryder (Photography/Program-Ad Designer/Promotion) – Mike is thrilled to be back on crew supporting the teens and daughter Little Becky Two Shoes (Jen). Mike was last on stage with Jen in Actorsingers Anything Goes (where Jen danced circles around him). The most memorable show for Mike was directing A/S Jr High School Musical with Jennifer as Choreographer. Besides acting/directing, Mike has produced shows, been on the A/S board, and worked all over crew. BREAK A LEG!

Meet the Crew Leads

John Franzini (Technical Director, Lighting Designer) – John is thrilled to be working on Urinetown. He has previously worked with the directing team, the stage managers, the set designers, and most of the cast in school productions and he appreciates the opportunity to once again live vicariously through these talented young people. John would like to thank Rick Brooks, Craig Brennan, Dennis Schneider, and John McAllister for their support and advice, and his wife, Jill, and his children, Laura and Christopher, for letting him do what he loves. "Pay no attention to that man behind the curtain."

Chris Drury (Sound Designer) – Chris is excited to be doing sound design for Urinetown. This is his second show with Teen Actorsingers after working on Grease last year. Chris attends Plymouth State University and will be a senior this fall where he studies Theatrical Technology.

Martha Benson (Costumer) - Martha began sewing Halloween costumes when her girls were young, then progressed to dance and theatre costumes. She has worked on shows for Actorsingers, Peacock Players, NTP, and was the costume designer and creator at Bedford High School for Seussical and Into The Woods.

Courtney Closson (Stage Manager) – Courtney Closson is excited to be stage-managing her first production for Actorsingers. She is also very excited to be stage-managing her first musical! She is a rising sophomore at Mount Holyoke College, pursuing a degree in Mathematics. During the school year, she stage-manages for the Mount Holyoke theatre department. She would like to thank Actorsingers for a wonderful summer, and would like to thank the cast for all their hard work and dedication to this unusual but exciting show.

Johnathan Bartol (Co-Set Designer) – Johnathan is thrilled to be a part of Teen Actorsinger's Urinetown: The Musical. He has been involved in theatre for several years, acting in various shows throughout his high school career; his favorite roles being that of Dracula in Dracula and Brian in the stage adaptation of The Breakfast Club (directed by Joseph Juknievich). John has been involved backstage stage managing the Elm Street Drama Club's shows for his freshman and sophomore years of high school; this is his second time designing sets, the first being designing the set for Elm Street's production of Willy Wonka in 2009. John is currently entering his junior year at the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, as an Architecture major. He is very grateful to have been given the opportunity to help in this production.

Meet the Cast

Sarah Drake (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Sarah is so excited to be appearing in her first Actorsingers show! Previous credits include Beauty and the Beast, (Mrs. Potts), Once on this Island, (Asaka), Singin' in the Rain, (Featured Dancer). She also performed in South Central Music Festival, Nashua Sings and Peacock Acapella. She thanks the cast, crew, friends and family for all of their support!

Sean FitzGerald (Senator Fipp) Sean is very excited to be performing in Urinetown, the musical. His other credits include Ensemble in Les Miserables and Grease, he was also Singin' in the Rain (Beautiful Girl). He is thankful for his support from his family and friends and he hopes you enjoy the show!

Adam Harding (Officer Lockstock) - Adam is a going to be a college sophomore and is pleased to be playing such a unique role in his last Teen Actorsingers show. Adam has most recently appeared onstage as Linus in Stagecoach's You're a Good Man Charlie Brown. He likes to eat ice cream and really enjoys a nice pair of slacks. Adam hopes that everyone enjoys the hard work put in by the cast, and remember -- keep your head down.

Alex Hebert (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Urinetown is Alex's third performance with Teen Actorsingers, after Working and Grease. He enjoys doing these musicals and loves the community at Actorsingers. The people here and the fun times creating shows keep him coming back to theater.

Logan Higgins (Mr. McQueen) - Logan is delighted to be making his debut to the Actorsingers stage! Some of his favorite credits include: Mulan Jr. (Quin-Po), Grease and Thoroughly Modern Millie (Jimmy Smith)

Andrew Holland (Officer Barrel) - Andrew is honored to perform in his second Teen Actorsingers show. He's a 15 year old Jr. at Nashua North. Past roles include Guys and Dolls Jr. (Sky Masterson) and a pit player for Actorsingers Seussical Jr. Andrew would like to thank all the directors for their hard work in this fun show!

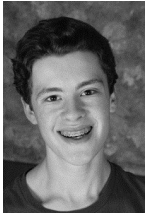

Meet the Cast

Becca Holland (Mrs. Millennium) - Becca is thrilled to be involved with second Teen Actorsingers production. Along with theatre, she enjoys sports, art, and hanging out with friends. She would like to thank her family and friends for supporting her even with their hectic schedules! Enjoy the show!

Abby Kotelly (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Abbey feels PRIVILEGED to be in Urinetown! She was last seen in Seussical as the Grinch. Her favorite roles include Fiddler on the Roof (Golde), Anne of Green Gables (Mrs. Blewett), and Into the Woods (Little Red Riding Hood). She thanks her talented cast for being SO much fun to perform with!

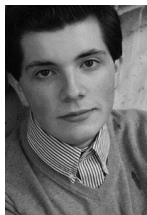

Ethan Kraus (Tiny Tom/Dr. Billeaux) - Ethan is honored to be performing in Urinetown, his second Teen Actorsingers show. He is an incoming junior at Nashua High South, where he is involved with Concert Choir and the Jazz Choir. Favorite credits include: All Shook Up, Grease, and Singin' in the Rain.

Maddie Kuchta (Soupy Sue) - Maddie is thrilled to be taking part in Urinetown. Maddie is an honors student at HBMS. She has been in several Actorsingers shows including The Sound of Music (Louisa) and Seussical the Musical (The Cat in the Hat). Enjoy the show!

Allison Lantagne (Robbie the Stockfish) - Allison is so excited to be making her community theatre debut with Actorsingers! This will be her 100th performance, a milestone which she is very proud of, and has worked very hard to achieve. She'd like to thank everyone who has supported her.

Jacob Lavoie (Billy Boy Bill) - Jacob is elated for his debut on the Teen Actorsingers Stage! Jacob recently was in productions of Much Ado About Nothing and The Good Doctor. Some of his favorite credits include: Seussical (Mr. Mayor) and Fame! (Mr. Myers). Regional credits: A Christmas Carol (Lovely Couple/School Boy).

Meet The Directors & Crew Leads

Brittney-Lynne Stanley (Choreographer) - Brittney-Lynne Stanley graduated summa cum laude from Dean College in Franklin, MA, where she majored in Arts and Entertainment Management and Dance. She was member of the Golden Key Honor Society one of the largest, most renowned, international honor societies, recognizing students in the top 15% of their class. She was also a member of Phi Beta Kappa Academic Honors Society, the nation's oldest academic honor society who recognized her for her commitment to academic excellence and being in the top 10% of her class. Brittney-Lynne has been dancing since the age of two, and has performed in many local theatre shows while growing up, including her favorite Swing. Recently she took her dancing to a professional level acting as Captain of the New England Patriots Cheerleaders for the last three years. Some performance credits include opening for Aerosmith on Commonwealth Ave, traveling to China to dance in the Nike Festival of Sports and appearing in B-max work out tape. Brittney-Lynne works and travels with Dancer's Inc. national dance competitions, stage managing and being mentored by renowned Broadway choreographers, as well as teaching master classes at studios throughout New England.

Evelynn Decker (Producer) - Evelynn has been involved with Actorsingers since her daughter was cast in Groovy in 2003. She has led costumes for several Actorsingers Junior shows and produced five teen productions. She would like to thank all the team leads and team members who worked on this production and greatly appreciates the generous amount of hours they dedicated that helped make this show possible. She would also like to thank Joe, Eric, Brittney-Lynne, Courtney and Matt for their creativity and dedication brought to every rehearsal well beyond their years. Lastly she would like to thank her daughter Jennifer (Little Becky Two Shoes) for her love of theatre that is so infectious she couldn't help herself volunteering in some capacity on every production she was ever in!

Catherine Z. Andruskevich (Mentor to the Directors, Board Liaison) - "CZA" is a "multiple" Life Member of Actorsingers and has both performed onstage, directed, and worked behind the scenes on just about every facet of production. She is a thrice past president of the Board of Directors and currently serves on the Board as a Director. Having served on the audition committee for Swing! and chaired props for Working and Grease Teen shows, she is delighted to have gotten more involved this year as mentor this year's directing team and to observe the talents, dedication and management skills of her mentees Joe, Eric and Brittney Lynne, and hopes they all will return to share them again with Actorsingers in the future. Last, but definitely not least, MANY THANKS to Evelynn for everything - always a pleasure!

Meet The Directors & Crew Leads

Joseph Juknievich (Director) - Joe is honored make his Teen Actorsingers directorial debut with the support of an amazingly talented cast and production crew. He has been involved in theatre for several years now with acting, directorial, writing, and technical experience. His favorite pieces that he has directed include his stage adaptation of John Hughes' The Breakfast Club and Reduced Shakespeare Company's ® All the Great Books:

Abridged! Favorite roles include Charlie in his stage adaptation of The Perks of Being a Wallflower and Victor Frankenstein in Frankenstein, a stage adaptation by Nashua North English teacher Walter Freeman. Most recently, Joe played Jason in a UNH senior capstone project by Katherine Jordan called Fury, a modern rock adaptation of the Greek tragedy Medea. Joseph is a sophomore History major at the University of New Hampshire. He is an officer for the 2013-2014 school year in UNH's Mask and Dagger Dramatic Society and a member of Wildacts, UNH's only social- justice theatre troupe. He would like to extend his gratitude to the Actorsingers organization for giving him the opportunity to direct Urinetown: The Musical and his gifted cast and crew for bringing this unique work to life. Special thanks to Evelynn Decker, Catherine Andruskevich, Eric Berthiaume, Brittney-Lynne Stanley, Courtney Closson and his friends and family for all their incredible support.

Eric M Berthiaume (Music Director) - Eric is extremely excited to be making his musical direction debut with the Teen Actorsingers' production of Urinetown: the Musical. No stranger to the stage, Eric has been in over 30 productions across the state with various theatre companies including Actorsingers' productions of Footloose and Seussical the Musical. Eric will be entering his junior year at the University of New Hampshire where he is pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree with a focus in vocal performance. In addition to his participation with the various choirs and the opera workshop program at UNH, Eric also directs the student music ministry at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Durham, NH. He also serves as Vice-President of the Catholic Student Organization. Though his main instrument is voice, Eric also plays piano and trumpet and has played for many musicals across the region. Many thanks to the cast for all their hard work and dedication to the show, Catherine and Evelynn for all their support and, of course, to Joe and Brittney-Lynne for sharing their brilliant talents with him and making this show a great success.

We're So Glad Urine This Show, Maddie.

XOXO Your Family

Meet the Cast

Nicholas Masson (Hot Blades Harry/Old Man Strong) Nicholas has performed in 12 shows and is very excited to be appearing on stage in his 4th Actorsingers show. Nicholas is a 17 years old senior at Alvirne H.S. He has been doing theater for 7 years and he has been dancing for 14. Nicholas would like to thank his friends and family for all the support they bring him every time he steps on stage.

Selena Miller (Police/UGC Executive/Additional Rebel Poor) - Selena is excited to be in her second Teen Actorsingers show. Recently she was in Working (Teen Actorsingers) and Stuart Little (Jr. Actorsingers). Next fall she will be a sophomore at Nashua High School North. She wants to thank everyone in this production for making an amazing show! Enjoy!

Natasha Rodriguez (Penelope Pennywise/Co-Set Designer) - Natasha has been performing with Actorsingers for many years and has loved every second of it. Before heading into her sophomore year at the University of New Hampshire, she is extremely honored to be playing Pennywise in her last Teen Actorsingers production. Natasha most recently appeared in Teen Actorsingers Grease as Marty. Natasha was also given the opportunity to design the set for Urinetown alongside Jonathan Bartol. It's been an exciting journey for her to see the show come to life, from rough sketches and highlighted librettos, to the big stage. Natasha couldn't have asked for a better cast and crew to spend her summer with. She would also like to thank the directing team for believing in and for trusting her with such a wonderful role. A lot of hard work has been put into the show, so remember, it's not just a "Privilege to Pee" but it's also a privilege to perform for an amazing audience. Enjoy the show!

Jennifer Ryder (Little Becky Two Shoes) - Jen has been performing with Actorsingers since age 7. She was last seen in the Actorsingers' productions of Grease, Chicago, Working, Aida, and Copacabana. Jennifer is very excited to be in Urinetown as her last Teen Production as she heads into her sophomore year at UNH. Jen sends a big thank you to all the cast and crew. She especially would like to thank her Mom & Dad for all their years of support of her love for theatre!

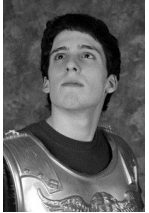

Alex Schofield (Caldwell B. Cladwell) - Alex Schofield is extremely excited to be making his Actorsingers debut as Cladwell. Though he has done several shows, Urinetown is only his second musical. Alex would like to thank his family as well as the director team for making all of this possible.

Maggie St. Louis (Josephine 'Old Ma' Strong) - Maggie is delighted to be a part of this lovely show. Maggie will be a junior at NHSS. She is involved in the music department and the drama club. Favorite past shows include Singin' in the Rain, Grease, The Laramie Project, and All Shook Up.

Sean Vigeant (Bobby Strong) - Sean is excited to be playing the part of Bobby Strong in Urinetown. Sean will be a Junior at Nashua High South, where he sings in the Concert and Jazz Choirs. Sean would like to thank John, Paul, George and Ringo and his family for their constant love and support!
