Actorsingers Scholarship Fund

Actorsingers awards a scholarship to high school seniors to honor the lives of members who passed away while still active and/or that made a significant impact in the organization. The Scholarship Committee looks for students who volunteer in the community, strive for excellence, and have a history with Actorsingers productions. Although special consideration is given for students pursuing theatre arts, this scholarship is not exclusive to theatre majors (The first recipient was a nursing major). Depending on applications, the scholarship may not have any honorees and/or recipients some years, which you can see on Actorsingers.org.

Applications are due each year by May 1st.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Welcome to Woods-Mill Middle School!

What an honor and a fantastic time it has been to be able to work with these kids. This show isn't well known... but it is filled with whimsy and love. I am 1000% sure you will walk away filled with laughs and potential spooks! Goosebumps is lots of fun, and I have wanted to direct this show since I was 16. I have had so many ideas and so many visions for this show, and I am so honored and excited to share it all with you.

Fear is powerful. Being spooked is powerful! These are things that show you are human. Being able to understand how you feel in uncertainty is powerful. When things go wrong, being able to pause and look for "whodunit"? is also very important. And when you are feeling anxious or scared, there is always people that will be there to support you. You are never alone, and the world is here to support you, you just have to reach out. (Even if you might have...well...goosebumps).

Last year, personally, had been a very hard one for me. This show has been a bright spark in the darkness and fear that I had throughout the year. I thank Actorsingers for allowing me to make this dream come to life.

I would like to thank my choreographer, Fiona Wanser, and my music director, Jonah Rivers. Without them I would have never been able to create this for you all. I would like to thank my producers, Martha Holland, Jim Ravan, and Susan Elberger. What a fantastic group of people to work with, I have loved every moment of it. Thank you.

I would also like to thank Ari Couser.
(my favorite roommate & the person holding this show together), Eliza Baxter, Brooke Kennedy, Amanda Coan, Leo Weston... there are plenty I am forgetting.

And a quiet thank you to JRR. You saw me in the dark.

-Vanessa Carlson

She would like to thank her mom, her Dad, and her Grandpa for driving her to rehearsals.

Ava Moffit is so happy to be playing CAMI!! This is Ava's third Actorsingers production. She was previously young Elsa in Frozen Jr. and in the kids ensemble in Beauty and the Beast. Meet the Directors

Vanessa Carlson is excited to give you GOOSEBUMPS! Last year she directed Actorsingers' production of Frozen Jr., with this being her 4th directorial experience! Besides doing theater she is currently enrolled in college, and plans to continue on the path of directing! She would like to thank her parents-adjacent, Yvette and Jonathan Couser, Ari Couser (the best womb-mate), Fiona Wanser (basically her sister), Leo Weston (her brother in crime), and Reid Saddler (The best Brooke she could've asked for).

Jonah Rivers is so incredibly excited to be back music directing his second show for Actorsingers, after Frozen Jr. last year. He is so proud of the kids and all the hard work they've done, and hopes you enjoy the show.

Fiona Wanser is the choreographer of Goosebumps Jr. She is a history major and has been dancing for 10+ years now; with ballet being her favorite. This is her second year with Actorsingers. Last year she choreographed Frozen Jr. and performed in Anastasia as a featured dancer. She wants to give a shout out to her wonderful Mother (Mom), Dahlia (her cat), and a special shout out to her dog Velvet, who is awfully missed, but her kind soul lives on. She's incredibly proud of this wonderful cast and all of the effort they put in, they should take pride in their work!
